1           On November 28, 2012, the parties filed with the Court a Stipulation seeking 2 to extend the deadline by which Defendant Bio-Engineered Supplements and 3 Nutrition, Inc. (“BSN”) must respond to the Complaint until January 3, 2013. In 4 support of the Stipulation, BSN submitted that good cause exists to grant the 5 stipulation because: (1) BSN just recently retained undersigned counsel, and 6 undersigned counsel requires additional time to evaluate and investigate the 7 allegations and claims set forth in the Complaint; (2) no party will be prejudiced by 8 the relief sought and Plaintiff consents to the requested extension; (3) trial will not 9 be delayed because the Court has not set any trial date or other deadline in this 10 case; and (4) no party has requested any extension of any deadline in this action.

11           Upon consideration of the Stipulation, and for good cause shown, IT IS 12 HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant Bio-Engineered Supplements and 13 Nutrition, Inc. shall respond to the Complaint by no later than January 3, 2013.

14           IT IS SO ORDERED.
